Neubert, Pepe & Monteith, P.C. Employees Support Save-A-Suit Firm Employees Donate Men's and Women's Business Clothing for Military Veterans

NEW HAVEN, Connecticut (April 29, 2015) – Employees at the New Haven, Connecticut law firm of Neubert, Pepe & Monteith, P.C. are cleaning their closets; gathering suits, dresses, pants, shirts, shoes, ties and other business clothing. The men's and women's business attire will be donated to Save-A-Suit for distribution to U.S. military veterans. The firm's monthly "Jeans Day" collection will also be donated to Save-A-Suit to help pay shipping costs to send suits to veterans on their lengthy waiting list. Save-A-Suit, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, provides military veterans and college graduates professional business attire at no cost to help them prepare for job interviews.

Ms. Kami Parisella, a paralegal with Neubert, Pepe & Monteith, reached out to Save-A-Suit to establish a relationship with the organization and is coordinating the firm's collections and donation. Ms. Parisella is very supportive of this particular undertaking noting that she and many other employees have family members who have served in the military. In fact, at Neubert, Pepe & Monteith, of 46 employees, 75% have an immediate family member or relative who has served our country in the military.

Ms. Parisella states, "I think it is important to help support soldiers and their families - they have sacrificed so much. Based on the participation in this fund raiser it's clear that others in the firm share this belief."

Neubert, Pepe & Monteith is a strong supporter of social services, health services, the arts, and education. The firm's employees are committed to service and are actively engaged in charitable events. Their recent support of military veterans through the work of the Save-A-Suit organization is part of their ongoing commitment to service.
