Andrew R. Lubin

Jane E. Ballerini

NEW HAVEN, Connecticut (April 6, 2016) – Neubert, Pepe & Monteith, P.C. is pleased to state that two of the firm's attorneys, Andrew R. Lubin, Principal and Jane Elaine Ballerini, Associate both hold the designation of accepted Designated Attorney for SBA Expedited 504 Loan Closings. Attorneys Lubin and Ballerini are two of only four attorneys in Connecticut who hold this U.S. Small Business Administration designation. Andrew Lubin has held the designation since 1995 and Jane Ballerini earned the designation in 2015.

Attorneys in the firm's Real Estate and Commercial Finance & Banking practice groups have represented local and regional lenders for almost 30 years in closing commercial mortgage loans, construction loans, asset based loans, and lines of credit. The firm also has a substantial practice in commercial work out, foreclosure, and REO matters as well as closing both SBA 7a and 504 loans.

Andrew Lubin heads both the Real Estate and Commercial Finance & Banking practice groups. He has been listed in "Best Lawyers" since 2001 and was named by Best Lawyers as the 2014 New Haven Real Estate "Lawyer of the Year." Attorney Lubin has also been named to the Connecticut Super Lawyer's list since its inception. Jane Ballerini practices in the areas of real estate, commercial finance and commercial and business law. She has been selected annually to the 2015 Connecticut Rising Stars list since 2013.
